Unemployment Rate Unchanged from December to January

According to the Nevada Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation's (DETR) January 2023 economic report, the state's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 5.5 percent in January 2023 which was unchanged from December 2022. Seasonally adjusted estimates account for regularly seen economic patterns, with the following estimates not seasonally adjusted.

Please note: the state is still in the process of producing annual revisions for local areas. Until those revisions are complete, county and city unemployment data cannot be directly compared to statewide data. These revisions are expected to be complete in April.

In the three Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSA), the unemployment rates were 5.9 percent in the Las Vegas area, 4.5 percent in Reno, and 5.2 percent in the Carson area in January 2023.

In Nevada's counties, the lowest unemployment rate was in Lander County at 3.8 percent, and Lyon County had the highest rate at 6.7 percent. For a look at the unemployment rate in your county, visit our Area Profiles Page.
