

Current law establishes that the Nevada Equal Rights Commission (NERC) has the authority to investigate claims of public accommodation discrimination based on gender identity or expression (NRS 651.110, NRS 233.150).

Nevada law defines places of public accommodation to include “[a]ny nursery, private school or university or other place of education” (NRS 651.050(3)(k)).

NRS 651.070 states that “[a]ll persons are entitled to the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and accommodations of any place of public accommodation, without discrimination or segregation on the ground of race, color, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, sex, gender identity or expression.”

Places of public accommodation DO NOT include any private club or other establishment not open to the public. (NRS 651.060)

COMPLAINTS ALLEGING DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF GENDER IDENTITY OR EXPRESSION AT A PUBLIC SCHOOL ARE WITHIN NERC'S JURISDICTION AND WILL BE ACCEPTED BY NERC FOR FURTHER REVIEW AND POSSIBLE INVESTIGATION.

NERC's representatives are available to provide training and to speak at seminars and meetings about discrimination laws and preventing discrimination.

COMMON QUESTIONS

WHO CAN FILE A CHARGE OF DISCRIMINATION?

Any individual, who believes his/her rights have been violated, as described in this brochure, may file a charge of discrimination with the Nevada Equal Rights Commission (NERC). Individuals who need an accommodation in order to file a charge (e.g., sign language interpreter, print materials in an accessible format) should inform NERC so appropriate arrangements can be made.

HOW IS A CHARGE OF DISCRIMINATION FILED?

You will be required to complete an Intake Inquiry form online at www.nvdetr.org, or by mail, or in person at the nearest NERC office. Your complaint will be assessed, and thereafter you may be scheduled for an interview. If certain legal requirements are met, a formal charge of discrimination may be drafted for your review and signature.

Are Complaints Anonymous?

Initially, yes. After you have completed your Intake Inquiry form, you will be scheduled to meet with a NERC investigator to determine if your allegation meets the legal requirements. This is called the intake interview. This interview is private. However, should NERC decide to draft a formal charge of discrimination, your complaint will not remain anonymous to the entity you are alleging committed the discriminatory act.

What Happens After I File a Complaint?

Once a complaint is filed, you will have the opportunity to resolve your complaint through NERC's mediation program. If the mediation is waived or unsuccessful, your case will be assigned to an investigator to determine whether there is reasonable evidence to believe discrimination occurred. If NERC believes discrimination occurred, the Administrator may conciliate the matter. If the conciliation is unsuccessful, the Administrator may present NERC's findings in an administrative hearing to NERC's 5-member Commission, all appointees of the Governor, for resolution. The Commission may order a cease and desist for the unlawful practice.

A civil action must be brought in court no later than 1 year from the date of harm. While the complaint is pending with NERC, the time is tolled. (NRS 651.120)
